

Comanche Springs Elementary

Home of the Spurs!

Since 2007, the teachers and staff of Comanche Springs have made it their mission to create a culture of excellence, instilling a passion for a lifetime of achievement in every student.

Mission: To ensure success for all students by providing specific, measurable, and attainable goals that reflect the school's vision. The school plan will provide the basic direction for our school through focus and emphasis providing highly engaged academic curriculum, providing positive, safe, and nurturing environment, and ensuring effective communication among all members of the Comanche Springs Community.

Fun Fact: CSE is nestled between two of Eagle Mountain-Saginaw's many train tracks. Students and staff have developed a love for the sounds of the train whistles and have learned to be flexible in order to work around any train delays that might impact the school's daily schedule.

Awards & Accomplishments: Scheduled to earn "Model School" status with Great Expectations, a character education program, by August 2017
