

Ed Willkie Middle School

Home of the Badgers!

Opened in 2009, the Badgers use a “communities within the school” concept, so all students feel connected. By building relationships, individualized instruction and modeling leadership through service, the staff at Ed Willkie Middle School is dedicated to the creation of a community that cultivates high expectations for our students.

Mission: To cultivate relationships that inspire the discovery and development of each individual student’s infinite potential.

Fun Fact: The school’s namesake, Mr. Ed Willkie, is very much involved in campus activities and stops by the campus often to interact with students and staff.
